

WIFE SHOT BY MAN FIGHTING FOR LIFE

Mrs. Margaret Keller, 2812 Jasper Street, May Recover, Say Hospital Doctors

PUTS BLAME ON HUSBAND

Physicians at the Episcopal Hospital have some hope for recovery of Mrs. Margaret Keller, 2812 Jasper street, shot twice in the head yesterday by a man she says was her husband. The assailant escaped.

Mrs. Keller was reported to be much brighter today, due to a blood transfusion made yesterday afternoon from her brother-in-law, James McEwen, a patrolman of the traffic squad.

In a statement to Magistrate Deitz, made at the hospital, Mrs. Keller laid all blame for the shooting on her husband. She said she had refused to be reconciled to his return after a separation of five months.

She was on her way to the Legal Aid Society, early yesterday, with her sister-in-law, Mrs. Amelia Finnell. Their object was to enforce payment of support money authorized by the Municipal Court when Mrs. Keller had her husband arrested for desertion and non-support.

At Jasper and Somerset streets, she says, her husband drove up in an automobile. Mrs. Finnell walked up the street. There was some argument and then, Mrs. Finnell says, Keller drew a gun and shot his wife.

Women's Dresses—the Glorious New Duvetyns in the "Jenny Colors"

$45.00 Duvetyn, $29.75 Poiret Twill, $29.75 Cashmere Crepe

Anniversary Sale-Priced $45

In the tete de negre browns—and the soft hennas—that all Paris recognizes as the colors that Jenny loves to work with—and to wear herself.

Two models—one reproduces a Jenny, with Jenny's clever ball-trimming and Jenny's beloved head-girdle. The other is Madeleine et Madeline's new "Venetian Lady" model—Venetian back; Venetian sleeve.

Also Special at $45

Canton Crepes in the high colors that are sweeping strongly back. (Ask to see the cockle-shell gridded model).

Tricotines—in redingote effect, over satin or over tricotine—a wonderful street dress that likes itself equally well when it steps in-doors to luncheon, or steps upon the club-platform.

Tricotines—richly embroidered with silk, the motifs outlined with beads.

Cashmere crepes with lace sleeves.

Two Sale-Specials at $29.75—One in Regular, One in Extra Sizes

Poiret twill, with inset side-panels of overlapping rows of fine braid, and with the flare-sleeves elbow-deep with braid. Green Canton crepe, vestee and sleeve-facings. Sizes 36 to 40.

And a cashmere crepe with tucks and tucks, and the smartest little ribbon sash-girdle, in sizes up to 38.

Bowser and Bricks.

"THE laundry and bay-window shall be of wood," said Mr. Bowser. "A wise law allows me thus to save fully two hundred dollars in building."

"Cousin Sam did that," urged Mrs. Bowser, "and he found that extra coal and repairs and painting and insurance cost him over a hundred dollars every year."

But Mr. Bowser insisted. The next winter an oil stove set the laundry and bay window afire. The rebuilding cost over a thousand dollars, for Mrs. Bowser said, "No wood this time, Mr. Bowser. I don't like that kind of saving. All-brick for me."

When you want any information about bricks, their kinds, colors, qualities, styles, uses or prices, the products of different makers, how to word specifications, names of competent architects, builders, engineers, etc., call up either of our offices.
